Experience

Angelia is a Partner at Braddell Brothers LLP specialising in international dispute resolution. She graduated with a LL.B. degree from the National University of Singapore (Law Faculty) and was called to the Singapore Bar in 2015, before being made a Partner of the firm in 2020.

Having grown her career at one of Singapore's oldest law firms, Angelia has close to a decade of expertise in commercial litigation and international arbitration. Her specialist areas include commercial and corporate disputes, energy and natural resources disputes, medical negligence and employment & labour law. She is well-versed in navigating complex disputes, and is often commended by clients for providing strategic, practical and effective solutions.

Angelia regularly appears at all levels of the Singapore Court, major arbitral institutions, and in disciplinary proceedings representing the Law Society of Singapore, Singapore Medical Council and Council of Estate Agents.

Outside the office, Angelia places strong emphasis on building and promoting the community of younger practitioners and women in arbitration. She serves in the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC)'s Women In Arbitration Executive Committee (2022 – 2024), which is committed to the promotion and success of female practitioners in arbitration and other related areas. She also emerged as a quarter-finalist in the 2017 Essex Court Chambers / Singapore Academy of Law Moot Court Competition for practitioners.
